

Applications Now Open for our International Dance Week Celebration!

Applications Open: Apply now to be part of the International Dance Week Celebration. We welcome submissions from dedicated dancers and artists eager to contribute to this special event.

Deadline: Submit your applications by January 4th.

Theme: Collaboration and Diversity: This season, our celebration focuses on collaboration, highlighting the beauty of cross-cultural and intercultural creation. Proposals featuring collaborations with BIPOC artists and contemporary dance artists are particularly encouraged, adding depth to the essence of our event. Duos and small groups will be considered.

Event Format: In-person/Livestream Hybrid: Our In-person/Livestream hybrid event aims to showcase the diversity of dance in Canada through carefully curated live and livestreamed performances. Audiences will experience dance as a universal language weaving together movement, color, texture, and sound. Applicants must plan to be present in Saskatoon for live performances.

Artists passionate about dance and collaboration are invited to inquire and submit applications by contacting us at freeflowdance@gmail.com. Join us in creating a vibrant tapestry of movement, culture, and collaboration at the International Dance Week Celebration!

Application Form: Access the application form here!

Eligibility: Please note that proposals are accepted from Canadian applicants aged 18 and above, recognized as professionals in their field.